Libel Suit Witness Says One Factory Worker Fined $300: Another Interned.

CASE NEARING THE END

A total of fifty-two indictments By the Associated Press. MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich., July 24 .-In all probability, the long hearing of Henry Ford's $1,000,000 libel suit against the Chicago Daily Tribune

> It began May 12. Attorney Weymouth Kirkland, before court opened today, told Attor-ney Alfred Lucking that the Tribune case would be concluded today and Mr. Lucking stated that the Ford rebuttal would require only a few days.

will reach the jury late next week.

Munitions Issue Up.

H. H. Esselstyn was recalled to the witness stand in connection with a letter he sent to Henry A. Wise Wood of New York, May 9, 1916. Mr. Wood in a speech at Detroit the night be-fore quoted Mr. Ford as saying that "in case of invasion he would not make a dollar's worth of munitions for profit.' Mr Esselstyn wrote that he and several others who were at the luncheon where Mr. Wood and Mr. Ford con-versed had not heard the words "for in the case, was recalled as a witness for the Tribune. He testified that at first there were 100 Ford employes who became members of the American Protective League, which operated to assist the secret service, and that the membership in the factory grew to 400. Their reports of suspected pro-Germans were turned over to the Hughes com-mittee later in course of the airship inestigation, witness said. The organization of the American Protective League in the Ford plants was like that in every other factory in the country where war work was done. Witness said he was a captain in the league and operatives reported in the league and operatives reported to him in writing, signed only by the operator's number. Mr. Clemet said that he reported to J. Herbert Cole of the United States Department of Justice "If an employe was suspected of pro-Germanism I assigned the in-vestigation to an operative in his de-partment," said Mr. Clemet. "Often operative and suspect work right next to each other."

ed in the evidence, assuming that the government would prosecute in its discretion. One employe was convicted in the federal court and fined $300." One pro-German, Mr. Clement said, was interned as a result of insistence of the Ford branch of the league. When the government issued an order requiring enemy aliens to carry per-mits, a complete investigation of the 30,000 Ford employes was made, and 607 German aliens discovered, he said.

Mr. Ford had often said he would not manufacture munitions. "When we

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, July 1 may think of the German, they have a strong liking for the business methods of the German representatives formerly in Brazil. Pattern after the German if you would be successful in dealing with the Brazilian merchants is the advice Brazilians give to North Americans seeking to establish commercial connec-tions held by European business houses customers. He learned the native lan-guage, catered to the likes, whims and eccentricities of the buyer. He did not try to convince the customer that he did not know his business or that the people did not know the styles. Instead he ordered from Europe exactly what the merchant requested, and when the shipment arrived he was on hand to see that it was right or to make it satisfactory. In contrast to this the Brazilian mer-
